From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated June 27.

Sendomir, June 3.

THE 31st of last Month the Envoy of Denmark was conducted to his Audience, in one of the King's Coaches, and receiv'd by the Marshal of the Confederacy and by the Vice-Chancellor and Treasurer of the Crown; who introduc'd him into the Hall where the Council was assembled, and plac'd him among the Ministers of State. He made a Speech in which he set forth that the King his Master had a sincere Friendship for his Polish Majesty and the Republick of Poland, consequently that he was much concern'd at the Troubles of Poland; but that he would use his best Endeavours to procure their Tranquility. The Vice-Chancellor answer'd him in the Name of his Majesty, the Bishop of Luceorie on the part of the Senators, and the Marshal on the part of the Nobility, that they had a grateful Sence of the Love and Friendship his Danish Majesty had expres'd for them. Then the Envoy was conducted back with the usual Ceremonies. Then Audience was given to the Deputies of the Army, who demanded the Payment of their Arrears, and gave renew'd Assurances that they would adhere to the King. This being done, and a Letter from the King of Denmark read, the Act of Confederacy was read, and a Debate arose on that Article wherein the Confederates of Warsaw are declar'd Enemies of their Country; for tho' all agreed to what was resolv'd with relation to the Cardinal Primate and the Bishop of Posnania, yet some were of Opinion 4 Weeks time ought to be allow'd to others to return to their Duty. But the Nobility were all of a different Opinion, so that it was carried at length that the Cardinal, the great General, the Bishop of Posnania, the Palatins of Posnania, Siradia, and Lencizia, the Castellans of Inowoclavia and Plosko, and the Marshal of the said Confederacy, should by Name be condemn'd as Enemies of their Country; and also that the Time allow'd the rest should not be granted to the Family of Sapieha, but that on the contrary the disposal his Majesty has made of their Offices should be approv'd. The 2d of June the King declar'd he was ready to take the Oath desir'd of him; but that out of his usual Clemency he would give 15 Days time to the chief of the Confederates above-nam'd, the Cardinal, the Bishop of Posnania, and the Marshal excepted; which occasion'd great murmuring among the Nobility, who were against allowing the great General one Hour. But the Senators representing to them, that the allowance of so short a time would only aggravate the Crime of those that should obstinately stand out against the King, and be advantagious to his Majesty, they acquies'd in it. Then his Majesty laying 2 Fingers on the Gospel, took the Oath that had been drawn up for him, the Nobility and others making loud Acclamations of long live King Augustus II. And afterwards the Senators and the Nobility took an Oath of Fidelity to the King, and sign'd the Confederacy. This done, Deputies were nominated to treat with the Envoy of Denmark; and all having promis'd to keep with the King, the Council was prorogued to the 1st of July. In conclusion Te Deum was sung, and Artillery fir'd. The 3d of June the Deputies appointed had a Conference with the Envoy of Denmark, who declar'd his Master was desirous to renew his Alliance with the Republick; and that he would communicate to his Danish Majesty the Terms that should be proposd to him for a new Treaty.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated July 1.

Sendomir, June 9. The Envoy of Muscovy had an Audience of the King the 5th, and communicated to him the News which he had receiv'd by an Express, that 10000 Foot and 4000 Horse, Muscovites, with 36 Pieces of Cannon, were come over the Boristhenes, and were marching to the Assistance of his Majesty; and that they may be expected here in about 3 Weeks, by which time a considerable Body of Succours is expected from Saxony.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated July 1.

Sendomir, June 10, Deputies from the Palatinat of Nowagrod are arriv'd here, who have had Audience of the King, Sign'd the Confederacy, and Sworn to maintain it. Gen. Schuilenberg has been here, and is gone with secret Orders from his Majesty to great Poland, where 'tis hop'd he will find the Saxon Forces that are coming from Saxony to joyn the King. We have receiv'd a Confirmation that the Muscovite Succous, consisting of 12000 Foot and 4000 Cossacks is on the March from Kiow towards Leopol. Parties are often sent out against General Rheenschild, by whom we are inform'd he is encamp'd in the Neighbourhood of the Town of Ilza. To morrow we shall take our Bridge in Pieces, and carry all the Boats up the River San, to Jaroslow. His Majesty's Army lies advantageously encamp'd, under the Cannon of this Place, between the Vittula and the San.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated July 3.

Sendomir, June, 16 The King of Poland's Army contiuues encamp'd under the Cannon of this Place; Monsieur Potocki having brought the News to his Majesty that the City of Leopol (or Lemberg) has declar'd for him, the Palatin of Caliz is sent to command there for his Majesty. 'Tis reported General Brand and another eminent Officer of the Crown have enter'd into the Confederacy for his Majesty, and will spedily come and joyn him with a Body of Troops. The Muscovites are advancing this Way through the Province of Volhinia.

Hamburg, May 24. They write from Dresden, that the Saxon Troops which are marching to Poland in number about 20000 Men, purpos'd to arrive to day at Guben; that they have a Train of Artillery of 24 Pieces of Cannon, and that they have laid a Bridge of Boats over the Oder, within 3 Leages of Crossen, in Order to pass that River.

From the Leiden Gazette dated July 1,

Warsaw, July 13. The Confederates demand 500000 Crowns of the King of Sweden to enable them to go on succesfully with the Election of a new King; and his Sweedish Majesty has offer'd them but 150000. The Nobility of Nur, Lomz, and Rozaine, had surrounded 600 Sweedes, but Succours coming to the latter, they fought and defeated the said Nobility, killing 5 or 600 of them; after which they burnt the Towns of Nur, and Andretow, Brok, and several others. The little Diets of Mazovia, novia, ſhould have met purſuant to the Univerſalia iſſued by the Cardinal Primate, but no body appear'd. Thoſe of Czersk are put off longer, as are alſo ſeveral others. Monſieur Radomiski General of great Poland, has publiſh'd Uuiverſalia, in which he fobids the Nobility of that Province to repair hither and aſſiſt at the new Election, on the penalty of having their Houſes burnt and their Lands laid waſte. He has likewiſe ſummon'd the Nobility to meet at Koſvia the 9th of this Month, in order to conſult of Means for ſupporting King Auguſtus. He has 2000 Saxons with him to protect them. Monſieur Smiegelski, has defeated the Staroſt Bobruiski, who is of the Family of Sapieha; and having enter'd the Town of Liſs which belongs to the Palat n of Poſnania, and finding there 600 Men new rais'd for that Palatin and cloath'd but not Arm'd; he he has caus'd them to be ſtrip'd of their Cloaths, ſome of them exceptad who have entered themſelves into his Service, and ſworn to be true to the King; he has put all the ſaid Palatin's Eſtate under Contribution. 3000 Saxons are gone with a party of the Forces of the Royal Confederacy towards Leopol, to oblige that City to declare for the King.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated July 1.

Warſaw, June 17. Tho' the Day appointed for a new Election be ſo near, not one of thoſe who have Voices and ought to be preſent at it are yet arriv'd, which gives no little Uneaſineſs to the chief Confederates; as do alſo the Incurſions made by Monſieur Smiegelski, who has exacted Contribution on the Lands of ſeveral of the Confederates; thoſe particularly of the Palatin of Poſnania are tax'd at 500000 Livres, and were threaten'd with Ruine unleſs Payment ſhould be made as yeſterday. The burning of the Town of Nur by the Swedes, has exaſperated the People againſt them. The Wife and Children of the Staroſt of that Place periſhed in the Flames; into which the Soldiers threw the Children as they came running out of the Houſe to ſave themſelves. 'Tis reported Prince Alexander Sobieski has at length declar'd, that if the Election fall upon him he will not refuſe the Crown.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated July 4.

Amſterdam, July 4. Letters from Poland of the 21ſt of June adviſe as follows.

The 19th of this Month the Confederates met at Warſaw to chooſe a new King; the Confederates began this memorable Day with begging the Preſence of the Holy Ghoſt in the Work they were upon, then follow'd a ſolemn Maſs, and a Sermon. After this Ceremony a mighty Crowd of People flock'd to the Field appointed for the Election, but the Electors were but few. The Marſhal of the Confederacy made a Speech on the Occaſion, as did alſo the Cardinal Primate, after which the former was unanimouſly declar'd Marſhal of the Election. They would have proceeded further, but ſome Deputies oppos'd it, repreſenting that the forreign Troops ought firſt to evacuate the Kingdom, and other Satisfaction be given as had been promis'd. In ſhort after much Conteſt, it was agreed to defer the Election to the 26th Inſtant, and in the mean time to concert Meaſures in order thereto, at the Cardinals Palace.

They write from Dantzick the 22d of June, that the King of Sweden is about to break up from Heilsberg, and march, with moſt of the Troops he has in Pruſſia, towards Warſaw.

Dartmouth, June 27. Juſt now came in a Flushing Privateer with a French Prize of about 150 Tuns, belonging to St. Mallo, bound for the Banks of Newfoundland, Laden with Salt and Proviſions; ſhe was taken 3 Days ago juſt after ſhe was come out of Breſt.

The Famous Antirheumatick Tincture, prepared only by Mr. Geo. Wilſon Chymiſt, at his Elaboratory in Well-yard near St Bartholomew's Hotpital by Smithfield. The Reputation this Tincture has acquir'd by its wonderful Operation, put me beyond thought of ever publiſhing it again in this manner, till I was inform'd that it was counterfeited by ſome Perſon that falſely pretends to it, whereas its true Preparation exceeds the Skill of common Jumblers of concres for Medicines. It hath cured ſeveral hundred Perſons of Quality and others, not only of Rheumatick Pains, but alſo of other chronick Diſeaſes. They who have the Curioſity to be farther ſatisfied of its Effects, may at the place aforeſaid ſee ſeveral Letters from Perſons of Quality, Phyſicians, Chyrurgeons and Apothecaries, giving an account of the admirable Cures it has perform'd. It is no where ſold but at the place above mention'd, and by my Daughter Mrs. Wilſon, at the Hermet's Head fix Doors from James-ſtreet in Long-Acre towards Drury-lane. It is put up in Bottles containing ſomething more than half a quarter of a Pint, at 2 s. 6 d. the Bottle with Directions. The Materia Medica, and Modus Preparandi (in general) ſhall not be denied to any Phyſician, eſpecially to thoſe Gentlemen that have been enter'd by me in the excellent and uſeful Science of Chymiſtry, of which number there are many eminent Phyſicians now living in England, Scotland, Ireland, France, Italy, Germany, Swedeland, &c.

The True Original STROPS,
